

Our Playground Charter

Duty Bearers respect this by...	WE HAVE THE RIGHT TO...	Rights Holders respect this by...
Making sure everyone is included Ensuring everyone is being fair and taking turns Joining in and starting games for children Providing a space for children to relax Making sure we come out on time	Relax and Play (Article 31)	Looking after playground equipment Including others in games and conversations Giving others space to relax Making sure everyone is having fun
Being approachable so that children can talk to us Helping children to listen to each other Making sure the environment is safe to play in Ensuring there is always a first aider available Being vigilant so problems are spotted quickly	Be safe (Article 19)	Helping our friends when they are hurt Listening to adult instructions Speaking out against bullying and telling an adult if you spot something that is not okay Using kinds words and kind actions
Encouraging and motivating children to join in games Introducing games for everyone to take part in Helping children who need help to find a friend Making sure equipment is being shared fairly	Meet other children (Article 15)	Inviting others to play and join in Treating each other fairly, sharing and taking turns Being welcoming to all children and adults
Ensuring games and equipment are accessible for everyone Listening and treating everyone equally or with equity Investigating difficulties properly before making a decision	Non-discrimination (Article 2)	Treating everyone with kindness Treating everyone fairly and equally Celebrating and respecting each other's differences Treating people how we would want to be treated
Discussing issues away from other children or privately Being patient Speaking calmly and remaining calm	Be treated with dignity and respect (Article 40)	Not embarrassing others for their mistakes Respecting everyone's feelings Respecting everyone's right to be heard and listen to what they have to say politely and calmly