

Little Red Riding Hood (English Translation)

Once upon a time there was Little Red Riding Hood.

Her granny lived in the forest.

Along the way she met a wolf and he ate the granny.

What big eyes you have granny.

What big ears you have.

I am not your granny, I am the wolf and my lunch is... YOU!

A hunter* was crossing the forest.

He saw the wolf and shot.

He saved Little Red Riding Hood and her granny

and everybody in the forest lived happily.

And everybody in the forest lived happily.

Everybody... except the wolf!

* NB: In this version of the Little Red Riding Hood song we have used the word “chasseur” (“hunter”) instead of “bûcheron” (“woodcutter”) which we use in the actual story. We have done this as we feel the word “chasseur” scans and flows better in the song but it is also a good opportunity to introduce pupils to extra new vocabulary that is relevant to the unit.
