

Beau was upset hearing about how single use plastic was harming the wildlife above land and below the water. He took photographs to show how the animals can be harmed. His message is to reuse, recycle and reduce whenever possible.

